Agenda Approval Motioned Krista S, Seconded Carly Carson, Passed unanimously

Minutes Approval Motioned Krista Scaligine, Seconded Natasha Lowe, Passed Unanimously

3. Principal's Report (Sean Rupert)

- Busy start to term
- Lion Dance (Lunar New Year celebration): this is a new celebration and we're excited for a new event
- A lot of field trips planned coming up soon
- Black History Month events coming up - a new performance company is being used this year.
- Pink Shirt Day: February 25th, 2026

4. Old Business:

A. Upcoming Meetings:

- planning to have one meeting in April and then the final one in June.
- Note that before April we usually book upcoming events (Health Education courses for the fall are booked in Feb).
- Exec to discuss with Mr. Rupert the pros and cons of either Saleema Noon or Options Sexual Health.
- Motion to set a budget for Health Education → $3000 plus approx $3500 for a parent night: motion to approve $3500 for sexual health course: motioned: Bouthena, Seconded: Natasha

B. Fundraising:

-Spring Dance: Spring Fling. We're considering booking Rock'N'Beau ($1200). Considering $10/tickets to book this DJ after rave reviews from the Kind Mind experience. April 7th is the only date she has left.
3:30-5:30 pm → motion $1200 to pay for dance and sell tickets for $10: Motioned - Krista; seconded Bouthena
Motion $10 tickets (Carly); second: Krista

-Spring Carnival: jolly jars, silent auction, tombola, or tickets to redeem for prizes? If anyone wants to volunteer for jolly jar station, I can give your child's classroom that one now.

-May 13, 2026

- Carly will draft an e-mail asking the FCE community if anyone is interested in taking on stations or adding a new one.

C. Budget Updates:

- Natasha made a Dec handout of the PAC fundraising/finance initiatives
- Big thanks to The Refillery for their donation to the school through their holiday shopping campaign
- Discussion about possible projector purchase: one classroom doesn't have a projector and this is limiting the classroom teacher. Motioned to buy one big screen TV as projector (up to $3000): Bouthena passed motion; Natasha seconded.
- Library books budget → Sean will check in with Jordyn.
- Deposit for grade 6/7 camp is coming up. Money from pizza sales will be needed. Natasha has this ready (approx $3100 right now)

4. Next meeting: April 14, 2026

-Motion to end meeting: Bouthena, Seconded: Krista
